

Below is a chart detailing the benefits of attending the 2018 Nuclear Deterrence Summit. Make a chart of your own; edit and add sessions you will attend and present it along with your letter and expense form to your supervisor.

YOU NEED:	NDS PROVIDES:
Strategic updates in the nuclear deterrence and nonproliferation areas.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The conference will explore the theme “The Administration’s New Nuclear Posture Review.” The review will detail the administration’s priorities for modernization and how this effort will relate to the nation’s policies on nonproliferation, arms control and keeping the nation safe from nuclear attack as well as continuing efforts by the Department of Homeland Security and Nuclear Detection Office to combat future nuclear smuggling and terrorism activities.</li> <li>• Expert speakers who are moving the industry forward will share their experience, perspective, updates and insight.</li> <li>• Session topics include:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>o Nuclear Posture Review and Policy Update</li> <li>o NNSA Weapons Activities</li> <li>o Infrastructure Modernization</li> <li>o Proliferation Challenges: North Korea, China and Iran</li> <li>o Extended Deterrence Challenges: Russia and NATO</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
An opportunity to network with your peers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Several networking events give attendees the chance to network with colleagues and government officials. 40% are senior management executives (VP-level and higher) and 42% are government or military executives.</li> </ul>
An opportunity to create business for 2018 and beyond.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Attendees have access to executives representing some of the world’s most influential organizations and government agencies working in the nuclear deterrence and nonproliferation arenas.</li> </ul>